

After hours works Banyo station

What?

Queensland Rail will undertake after hours works during a weekend track closure, as part of the Banyo station accessibility upgrade.

Activities involve the operation of large cranes, positioned around the station, to lift in the new footbridge, station infrastructure and construction materials.

When?

Around-the-clock works from 6am Saturday 7 until 5am Monday 9 September.

Road closure and traffic diversion from 4am Thursday 5 until 12:01am Monday 9 September.

Traffic control and project personnel will be on-site from 3am Thursday 5 September to set up the road closure.

Where?

A full road closure will be in operation at the corner of Royal Parade and Tufnell Road (between the level crossing and Purchase Street), with a traffic diversion via Elliott Road, Froude Street, Musgrave Road and Kennaway Street (see map over).

Access to private property will be maintained at the direction of traffic controllers.

Pedestrian access will be maintained via the footpath (shops/cafe side).

For safety, there may be short delays during crane lifts.

Impacts

Operation of large cranes, movement of trucks and vehicles with flashing lights and reversing beepers

Construction noise, truck movements, crane operation, machinery and powered tools

After hours works - nights and weekend

Full road closure with traffic diversion (see over)

Lighting towers at night

We apologise for any inconvenience and thank you for your patience while we build you a better Banyo station. Works may be subject to change due to weather conditions and operational requirements.
